

Saginaw Residents: Know the Facts, Discard the Double-talk

Did you know the naysayers are OUT OF CONTROL, distributing INACCURATE and UNCERTIFIED information to MISLEAD Saginaw residents by drawing CONFUSING “comparisons” between the City of Saginaw and Saginaw Township? Township officials noticed, and had this to say. . .

“I can’t believe anybody would publish that kind of trash. . . these numbers are crazy.”

George Olson, Saginaw Township Supervisor, as published in The Saginaw News, October 22, 2002.

“[The opponents] are letting their emotions get in the way of presenting factual truths. . . it is a comparison of apples and oranges.”

George Olson, Saginaw Township Supervisor, as published in My View, The Saginaw News, October 26, 2002.

“I can’t believe people would read and believe [this] material.”

Ron Lee, Saginaw Township Manager, as published in The Saginaw News, October 22, 2002.

The facts and truth about the tax caps have been thoroughly researched by a fact-finding committee and certified by third party public accountants. The truth is that your vote on Tuesday will set the direction of your City. Let’s move FORWARD!
